Thomasville, Ga., has been properly called the "City of Roses among the Pines," and is a city of unusual beauty and distinction lying in the yellow pine belt of south Georgia about 12 miles from the Florida line, and 50 miles from the Gulf of Mexico. Thomasville is the original winter resort of the South and possesses a large number of magnificent estates owned by some of the Country's best known families.

GEORGIA CIGAR & TOBACCO CO., ALBANY, GA., DISTRIBUTORS

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C.T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE

3B-H1688

POST CARD

T-1
AZALEAS AND PALMS
ROSES
GREETINGS FROM THOMASVILLE
GA.
THE BIG OAK
"The City of Roses Among the Pines"
© CURT TEICH & CO., INC.